Memo No 612/67/SE

Date 18.08.14

From:-The District Inspector of Schools (SE), Nadia.

To:-All the Head of the Institution.

Sub:-Inspire Award

With reference to subject noted above and in continuation of previous memos, the undersigned informs them that though 400 schools have registered in the online schemes of INSPIRE AWARDS, around 100 schools have nominated the students for the said scheme. In our District, 620 no of Govt. aided upper primary/Secondary /Higher Secondary Schools are in receipt of Grant-in-Aid from the Govt.. Therefore almost 220 schools have not yet registered the names of the schools and around 500 schools have not nominated the names of their students. The list of registered schools is enclosed with memo and also the list of schools, who nominated students is also enclosed with the memo. The remaining schools are once again requested to register and nominate the names of their students which is necessary for success of the programme.

In case of help DRP's may be contacted.

District Inspector of Schools (SE), Nadia.
